I represent the plaintiff in the above-referenced case. I write to respectfully advise that the plaintiff accepted the City's Rule 68 Offer of Judgment on Friday November 4, 2011. See Docket Entry No. 11. The parties now respectfully request that the Court permit the parties until December 7, 2011 to attempt to negotiate attorney's fees and expenses. If the parties are unable to successfully negotiate attorney's fees by December 7, 2011, plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court set a motion schedule for plaintiff to submit his fee application. Defendant City consents to this request.

By way of background, plaintiff accepted the City's Rule 68 Offer of Judgment on November 4, 2011. Thereafter, on Monday November 7, 2011 the undersigned expeditiously submitted an accounting of attorney's fees and expenses to the City of New York. To date, the City has failed to respond with an offer to resolve attorney's fees and expenses. However, counsel for the City has indicated that the Comptroller is currently reviewing the submitted attorney's fees and expenses and intends to respond.¹

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,
